

CLOUD MOUNTAIN
LIVING ARTS & AIKIDO

presents an afternoon of acoustic music with

The Zeichner Trio

Saturday August 18, 4:30-6pm

Yasi, Oliver, and Louli Zeichner are three siblings who play traditional Irish music, and Old-Time/Appalachian music – with Louli on 4 and 5-string banjos and Celtic harp, Oliver on the penny whistle and the uilleann bagpipes, and Yasi on the fiddle. They have performed throughout the state at many events, from festivals to weddings and house-warmings.

Bringing the tradition alive with their creativity in voice and instrument, the Zeichner Trio has gained a reputation in the community as a young, up-and-coming band in the state of Vermont

Tickets at the door, $10, children 12 and under free. Light refreshments will be served. Bring your own picnic (blanket, beverages and food) to enjoy following the concert. Rain or shine. RSVP preferred, please contact us at sensei@cloudmountainaikido.com

Cloud Mountain Living Arts and Aikido is a place to cultivate the self through an exploration of traditional martial arts, fine arts and crafts, music, sustainable living, yoga and contemplation.
